ISOE MEMBERSHIP TYPES AND ACCESS RULES TO ISOE INFORMATION

1. ISOE Member

Management Board member – person from the ISOE participating country, which is designated by the Participating Licensee or by the Participating Authority;

Technical Centre member – person from ISOE Technical Centre;

Joint Secretariat member – person from NEA or IAEA, performing ISOE Secretariat's functions;

Expert and/or Working Group member – member of ISOE Expert and/or Working Group from ISOE Participant's organisation;

ISOE Members have a full access to the ISOE Database and to all ISOE Products (annual reports, information sheets, documents from RP Library, ISOE Forum). Some documents or forums are however restricted to ISOE Nuclear Licensees or ISOE Authorities. One forum is restricted to WGDECOM members only.

2. Non-ISOE Members

Member of the organisation under TCA – person designated by TCA Organisation for participating in ISOE Program

Observer – person of a non-ISOE-Participant's organisation, authorised by the Management Board to participate in ISOE meetings;

An organisation which is not an ISOE Member can be invited by the ISOE Management Board to sign a Technical Cooperation Agreement (TCA) with ISOE in order to participate to ISOE expert and/or working group activities to provide technical expertise. The «ISOE Expert and/or Working Groups Nomination Procedures» document applies to this situation.

The individual(s) of this organisation participating to ISOE expert and/or working groups through nomination under the TCA can only have access to the documents of the working/expert group he/she (they) belongs to, as well as to the dedicated forum (if relevant) and as approved by the ISOE Management Board (Bureau).

In specific cases, the Management Board can decide to give to this (these) individual(s) an access to other documents or to the ISOE database. Such access to and use of the documents and/or data would be constrained by the relevant portions of the TCA and the ISOE Terms and Conditions.

Some representatives of non ISOE Participant's organisations can be invited to participate to the ISOE activities, including expert/working group meetings, as observers in order to provide their technical expertise. «The ISOE Expert and/or Working Groups Nominations Procedures» document applies to this situation. This (these) individual(s) may have only access to the documents as approved by the ISOE Management Board.
